DETAILED ACTION

Specification

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities. References to copending applications must be updated by providing the application serial numbers and if the copending applications have issued as patents, the patent numbers.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Objections

Claim 12 is objected to because of the following informalities. In line 2, it appears that "1" should be "2" to correct a minor typographical error. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claim 13 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter that was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. It is not clear how the x-ray template is used with the bone plate of Applicants' invention.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 2-11 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 10, 16 and 20 of U.S. Patent No. 7,090,676 (Huebner et al.).

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the only difference between claims 2-11 of the present application and claims 10, 16 and 20 of U.S. Patent No. 7,090,676, is that the patented claims are more specific. Thus the invention of the patented claims 10, 16 and 20 is in effect a "species" of the "generic" invention of the claims of the present application. It has been held that the generic invention is "anticipated" by the "species." See In re Goodman, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993). Since the claims of the present application are anticipated by the patented claims 10, 16 and 20, they are not patentably distinct from the patented claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Jonsson et al. (US 4,919,119).

Jonsson et al. disclose a bone fixation system including: first and second plates 6 and 43 connected by a ball joint 5 by which the relative disposition of the first and second plates is adjustable; plates 6 and 43 being configured to be fixed to bones by pins 44 and 45; and reference marks 17 provided on a lateral cover or "measurement device" or an "x-ray template" 16 provided on first plate 6 (Fig. 5, col. 4, lines 28-68, col. 5-6 and col. 7, lines 1-50). It is noted that plates 6 and 43 are bone plates because they are plates used on or with bones.

Claims 1-3, 5, 8-11, 14, 16-18 and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Schumacher et al. (US 6,129,728).

Schumacher et al. disclose first and second bone plates 92 and 93 and a plurality of serrations or "reference marks" 98 disposed on each of the plates and a joint (30, 32) allowing pivotal movement of the first and second bone plates relative to one another (Figs. 9 and 10 and col. 6, lines 35-65).

The method steps of claims 1, 14, 16-18 and 20 are performed during normal use of the Schumacher et al. bone system for bone fixation.
